Dear Friends in Service and Volunteering,

As the director of UServeUtah, I am fortunate to work within an amazing state that recognizes and embraces the value of Service and Volunteerism. I am also privileged to work with a staff and commissioners who understand the importance of service in uniting individuals and communities.

This ability of people to work willingly together for the betterment of their community is a valuable resource that we enjoy here in Utah. Thank you for your gifts of time and talents that make a significant difference in people's lives.

Our work at UServeUtah is all about enabling individuals, organizations, and communities to benefit from the power, service, skills, and passion of volunteers. I am pleased to share this 2016 Annual Report outlining our past year's efforts with you, our friends and partners, and I am looking forward to another amazing year in 2017!

ABOUT THE COMMISSION

PURPOSE

The purpose of UServeUtah, the Utah Commission on Service and Volunteerism, is to enable individuals, communities, and organizations in Utah to benefit from the service, power, skills, and passion of volunteers.

MISSION

Our mission is to strengthen Utah communities through the uniting power of service and volunteerism.

VISION

Our vision is to have vibrant, inclusive, productive communities with active engaged citizens.

UServeUtah, the Utah Commission on Service and Volunteerism, was created by state statute in 1994 and is comprised of 20 members representing local government, community-based organizations, and statewide networks, as well as 8 staff. As the state's central coordinating body for service and volunteerism, the Commission is responsible for developing, implementing, and sustaining a vision and culture of civic engagement and national and community service within the state.

Since its inception in 1994, UServeUtah has focused on increasing the capacity of organizations to serve, strengthen and transform communities through service and volunteerism. It furthers its mission by promoting volunteerism, administering national service programs, connecting people with opportunities to serve, building organizational capacity for effective volunteer engagement, and participating in strategic initiatives that mobilize volunteers to meet local needs.

CORE VALUES:

- Service Unites. Volunteering collectively grows bonds across various experiences, beliefs, backgrounds and barriers.
- We believe that volunteerism is a uniquely American form of civic engagement that is fundamental to our democracy and critical to our communities.
- We believe volunteers build strong communities and have a lasting impact on local needs.
- Utah volunteers are exceptional. They are willing to make the time and the connections that come from reaching out in service to, and with, others.
- We know that volunteers are bedrock in any community. Neighborhoods where volunteers gather and serve are more vibrant, safe, and engaged.
- People who volunteer feel a unique sense of ownership and responsibility and are in turn transformed by the experience.

We are dedicated to recognizing and acknowledging individuals for their volunteer efforts.

Member Gathering

In conjunction with the National AmeriCorps Week March 5-12, UServeUtah hosted an AmeriCorps member gathering on March 10 at the Radisson in Salt Lake City with the theme of “Living a Life of Service.” This event provided networking opportunities, training courses, and service projects for approximately 450 AmeriCorps members and program managers in Utah.

Participants from AmeriCorps State and VISTA programs convened for a day of workshops, networking, and service projects that benefitted numerous nonprofit organizations statewide including Volunteers of America, the Utah Food Bank, the Utah Health Policy Project, Primary Children’s Medical Center, the Red Cross, Fourth Street Clinic, and youth in correctional facilities.

National Service Day on the Hill

On February 10, 2016, UServeUtah hosted the second annual National Service Day on the Hill. National service programs from across the state gathered at the Utah State Capitol to educate legislators on the role of national service in communities throughout Utah.

Representatives from AmeriCorps, VISTA, and Senior Corps were recognized in the House and Senate. Lt. Gov. Spencer Cox also addressed the national service programs and highlighted the collective impact of national service efforts in Utah.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Day of Service Projects

NATIONAL DAYS OF SERVICE

Designated National Days of Service provide individuals, families, organizations, and communities with opportunities to come together to make our nation stronger. UServeUtah awards grants to increase the number of people who serve in meaningful roles as volunteers dedicated to addressing important needs in communities across Utah.

The Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service is a way to transform Dr. King's life and teachings into community service that helps empower and strengthen local communities. This "Day On, Not a Day Off" calls for Americans from all walks of life to work together to provide solutions to our most pressing national problems.

Celebrating and Serving on September 11 provides a positive and forward-looking way for Americans and others to forever honor and remember the victims, survivors, and the many that rose in service in response to the 9/11 tragedy, including first responders, recovery workers, volunteers, public safety officers and members of our military.

SEASONS OF SERVICE

Summer of Service

This summer, UServeUtah honored youth across Utah for their service to their communities as part of Summer of Service, an initiative calling on Utah youth ages 5-25 in Utah to make a meaningful difference in their communities by volunteering June 1 to August 31. Youth sign up to participate, volunteer their time, log their hours online, and submit photos and stories from their service.

Summer of Service participant Madelyn Flower (pictured left) shared the following insight on how volunteering has affected her:

"With so much hatred and darkness filling our world lately it is nice to help out and see the bright smiles of others. Just seeing the happiness of another person makes my day a million times better. Volunteering allows me to see that there can be peace and happiness in this chaotic world. With doing volunteer work I am not only helping others but also myself. Volunteering at the IMC in Murray at the Baby Gift Shop is one of the most amazing and fun things I have ever done. I get to interact with people who have some of the most beautiful souls. It is so amazing to see new lives just brought into this world. I also had a great time at Utah Arts fest helping kids build paper robots. It was so much fun and I loved helping them and seeing their excitement when their robot would start buzzing around. Volunteering helps me see that there is light in this dark world."

Festival of Trees

The UServeUtah staff (pictured below) put together a pirate-themed display for Intermountain Healthcare's Festival of Trees fundraiser. The Festival of Trees solicits donated, decorated trees, which are then auctioned off to businesses, organizations, individuals or families. UServeUtah's "treasured volunteers" tree, which inspired others to get involved in their communities, was sold at auction on December 3 for $3,000, with 100 percent of the proceeds going towards helping children at Primary Children's Hospital.

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

Power of Service Award

The Power of Service Award, given three times per year, honors a volunteer who shows significant commitment to the overall well-being of the populations for which the volunteer serves. Recipients of the award were honored by UServeUtah Commissioners at Commission Board meetings.

Utah Philanthropy Day

November 17, 2016, marked the annual Utah Philanthropy Day Luncheon honoring Utah's dedicated philanthropists and volunteers who inspire so many individuals and organizations throughout the state with their spirit of giving. Over 950 individuals attended this gala event which is hosted by UServeUtah, the Utah Society of Fund Raisers, and the Utah Nonprofits Association.

Lt. Governor's Volunteer Recognition Certificate Program

The Lt. Governor's Volunteer Recognition Certificate program is an opportunity for nonprofit, faith-based, corporate, and government agencies to recognize the on-going volunteer efforts in their own agencies with a certificate signed by the Lieutenant Governor. In 2016, 176 certificates were awarded to volunteers across the state.

VOLUNTEER MANAGEMENT TRAINING

Volunteers are the heart of many nonprofits and are often vital to an organization's success, but many volunteer managers are not given the tools necessary to succeed. UServeUtah's training helps organizations manage their volunteers in a way that brings out the best in them.

Attendees are trained on the "how to" of effective volunteer management including recruiting, interviewing, training, motivating, and recognizing volunteers. UServeUtah hosts these trainings in partnership with other organizations several times each year throughout the State of Utah.

NEW THIS YEAR: Customized Volunteer Management Training

In partnership with the Utah Division of Arts & Museums, UServeUtah developed a Volunteer Management Training curriculum customized for Museum Managers across the state. The training is offered as a two part series with participants completing hands-on implementation homework between sessions. The training was offered Fall 2016 in Northern Utah to 21 trainees from museums in 10 different counties. It will be offered to Southern Utah museum managers Spring 2017.

CROSS-SECTOR COLLABORATION

GIVE Salt Lake

In October, UServeUtah hosted GIVE Salt Lake, a 2-day event where nonprofits, for-profits, and donors came together to discuss how to accelerate positive change in the world. Over 200 people were in attendance, and 18 organizations participated in a pitch competition where $55,000 in cash, in-kind and pro bono services was awarded. Ann Romney spoke to participants about her long history of community service through the Ann Romney Center for Neurologic Diseases. At the gala awards luncheon, collaboration awards were given to The Other Side Academy, Cotopaxi, Larry H & Gail Miller Family Foundation and Salt Lake County. GIVE Salt Lake partners included Forever Young Foundation, University of Utah Business School, Full Circle Group, United Way of Salt Lake, Community Foundation of Utah, Utah Nonprofits Association, Intermountain Healthcare, Kirton McKonkie, Pathway Associates, as well as many corporate sponsors.

Trainings

One way UServeUtah seeks to build and cultivate capacity in the volunteer and service committee is by providing trainings to organizations on how to use volunteers. UServeUtah staff members provided training at the following events:

- Utah Nonprofits Association Annual Conference
- Mountainwest Arts Conference
- Utah Association of Career and Technical Education
- GIVE Salt Lake

Cyber Seniors

In Summer 2016 UServeUtah facilitated the launch of a Cyber-Seniors program which engages youth to be skills-based volunteers teaching seniors—one on one—digital literacy and access skills, from using a mouse to creating an email account or a YouTube video. Cyber-Seniors was an 8-week program offered at Salt Lake and Provo senior centers with the goal of strengthening communities through service by bridging the generational gap between seniors and youth and the digital divide through the power of volunteerism and cross-sector collaboration. UServeUtah secured the following partnerships crucial to the program's launch:

- Google Fiber
- University of Utah Gerontology Department
- BYU Gerontology department
- University of Utah Bennion Center
- Epik Deliberate Digital
- Sorenson Multicultural Center
- Salt Lake High Rise senior apartments
- Cascade Gardens senior apartments (Provo Housing Authority)
- MyTech High Utah

STATE EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM

UServeUtah acts as the state lead for the Volunteer and Donations Coordination Team (VDCT). The VDCT is part of the State Emergency Response Team (SERT) and meets monthly at the state Emergency Operations Centers to train and exercise with other Emergency Support Functions that are needed to help run the state in event of a large disaster. UServeUtah's roles include:

- Helping coordinate volunteer efforts throughout the state.
- Making important decisions about how donations will be managed at a state level.
- Working closely with volunteer agencies, as well as local and state emergency management, to ensure that the volunteer and donations needs of the state are being met.

Mountain West Regional VOAD Conference

In April 2016, Montana VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster) hosted the third annual Mountain West Regional VOAD Conference in Bozeman, Montana. UServeUtah gave a presentation at the conference on the benefits and challenges associated with spontaneous volunteerism during disasters and VOAD's role in using those volunteers in the aftermath of a disaster. VOAD representatives from all over the West attended the conference and participated in networking events and workshops aimed at a variety of topics which included building and strengthening the capacity of VOAD coalition members, highlighting accomplishments, and fostering relationships with other disaster-related organizations.

Whole Community Preparedness

In September 2016, UServeUtah participated in the first ever Whole Community Preparedness training presented by Montana's Governor's Office of Community Service. Organizations came to this all-day event to be trained on how to interact during a disaster. The morning was spent in training and the afternoon was a "whole community" exercise where a disaster scenario was presented. Donation and volunteer management were a large part of the exercise and UServeUtah participated in the setting up and running of the Volunteer Coordination Center that registered and placed spontaneous volunteers during the disaster.

Utah Preparedness Expo

Also in September 2016, UServeUtah manned a booth at the second annual Utah Preparedness Expo at the South Town Expo Center. The event was well attended and offered presentations and workshops on disaster preparedness. UServeUtah spoke with attendees about their role in a disaster and encouraged them to affiliate with disaster organizations now instead of waiting for a disaster to occur.
