

FIVE REASONS TO RECRUIT SENIOR VOLUNTEERS

HOW CAN SENIOR AND SKILLS-BASED VOLUNTEERS HELP MY ORGANIZATION?

1 Skills-based volunteers come with great skill and lots of experience.

By volunteering, they can save nonprofit organizations money, time, and headaches.

2 Senior volunteers dedicate more hours than younger generations.

Dedicated senior volunteers can be a lifesaver for a nonprofit organization. Their dedication can make a world of difference.

3 Senior volunteers may have greater flexibility with volunteering hours.

Without a defined work schedule, seniors may have greater flexibility with the times they can serve.

4 Skills-based volunteers have a unique perspective and come with new experiences and education.

Seniors also come with great experience and many valuable skills. With their work and family background, their service can be even more important for a nonprofit to use.

5 Senior volunteers have a strong desire to give back to their community and to build a legacy that will outlive them.

Nonprofit work can provide a great avenue for seniors to leave their legacy and make a lasting impact in their community.
